

CHAMPION

OF THE LOCAL COMMUNITY.

Part of the morning coffee crew.

How does a bank stay local, strong and independent for 92 years? Doing business in a region built on hard work. Respecting the value of a dollar. And staying connected with our neighbors. We're proud to be – and intend to remain – a local bank. We support multiple local causes every year, because we're invested in this community. And while we're as committed as ever to pushing forward, we still believe in giving back.

So whether you've been here for generations or just a week, you're invited. Make yourself at home. At the hometown bank.

From here. For here. For good.
