Orrstown Bank announces new hires, promotions

Dale Flor, branch executive officer, transferred to Orrstown Bank's branch in Mechanicsburg near Route 114 and Bent Creek Boulevard. He previously served as the branch executive officer for the bank's location on Simpson Ferry Road in Mechanicsburg since 2013. Flor has nearly 30 years of experience.

Flor is a member of the board of directors for the Mechanicsburg Chamber of Commerce, a committee member for the American Cancer Society Relay for Life of Camp Hill, vice president of the Cumberland Valley Baseball Umpires Association, and a registered PIAA baseball official.

Andrew Gearhart joined Orrstown Bank as a mortgage loan officer at Orrstown Bank's branch in Carlisle on Giant Lane. Previously, he was an account executive for Pennsylvania and Ohio for Crescent Mortgage and he spent 10 years as a mortgage originator for Metro Bank.

Gearhart has a bachelor's degree in criminology from Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

"One of the most satisfying parts of my job is when a new homeowner gets the keys for the first time," Gearhart said. "It's the result of years of hard work coming to fruition, and I'm glad to share that moment with them."

Rena Geesaman joined Orrstown Bank as associate vice president & branch executive officer at Orrstown Bank's branch in Carlisle on Giant Lane. Previously, she was a market manager for Susquehanna Bank in the Carlisle and Dillsburg areas. She also worked as a vice president and branch manager for Commerce Bank.

Geesaman has more than 11 years of experience as an entrepreneur and property manager, giving her a unique understanding of her business clients. She also has experience in labor relations for a national retailer and has worked in the travel and healthcare industries.

She is the former vice president of the board of directors for Project S.H.A.R.E. of Carlisle and is a member of their Special Events and Volunteer committee. She is a member of United Way Women in Leadership and Sunrise Rotary Club and has served as a program committee member for the Greater Carlisle Chamber of Commerce's Women for Women initiative. One of her favorite roles, however, is helping in the nursery at River of God Church in Enola.

Viki Hronis was promoted to branch executive officer for Orrstown Bank's branch in Spring Run, Pa. She served as a customer service representative at the Shippensburg branch on King Street for three years and as a club services representative for AAA of Southern Pennsylvania. She attended Shippensburg University.

Alan Mullendore joined Orrstown Bank as vice president and relationship manager for the bank's Hagerstown, Md., location.

A native of the Hagerstown area, he attended Towson University and Shepherd University where he earned a bachelor's degree in fine art. While pursuing a second degree in art education with the hopes of becoming an art teacher, Mullendore felt called to the banking industry. He joined Farmers & Merchants Bank and Trust in Hagerstown in 1999 and spent most of his time in the commercial banking area. He later worked with BB&T Bank as a business services officer and then at M&T Bank on the business banking team.

He is a past president of Leadership Frederick and previously served on the Frederick Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, Frederick Arts Council Board of Directors, and Mission of Mercy Fundraising committee.

He currently serves on the board of directors for the YMCA of Frederick County and on the Executive Committee as the Chair of Financial Development. He is the co-chair of the Annual Cystic Fibrosis Shoot for a Cure, Mason-Dixon Boy Scouts of America Annual Shoot, manages operations of Actor's Hill Shooting Syndicate, and is an active Rotarian. Mullendore coaches his children's youth sports teams.
