Orrstown Bank buys office building in Harrisburg to support expansion

Orrstown Bank announced today that it has purchased an office building in Swatara Township, Dauphin County, as part of the bank's strategic expansion plan. Orrstown Bank is headquartered in Shippensburg and has its operations center in Chambersburg.

The new regional facility, at 4750 Lindle Rd., will be used to support the bank's expansion into Dauphin, Lancaster, and York counties. Thomas R. Quinn, Jr., President and CEO commented, "As other banks in the region are consolidating, there are many valuable employees looking for an opportunity with a growing company and this facility provides convenient access to attractive markets." Orrstown plans to hold career fairs in the building this spring to fill positions as the bank continues to grow.

The new regional office will house employees from several departments including retail banking, commercial/business banking, mortgage lending, and trust/wealth management. Additionally, the building contains flexible public meeting space that can be made available to non-profits and community groups. Part of the building is currently leased to tenants who will remain.
