Orrstown Bank supports Junior Achievement of Central Pennsylvania's mission to empower young people

Members of Orrstown Bank's Lancaster team presented a $5,000 donation to Junior Achievement of Central Pennsylvania Oct. 7 to support the programs that help young people prepare for successful futures.

The $5,000 contribution will help Junior Achievement continue to offer student-focused initiatives including developing curriculum, recruiting volunteers, and providing scholarships.

Junior Achievement of Central Pennsylvania serves students in nine counties including Lancaster. Volunteers from the community come into the classroom to teach the Junior Achievement curriculum, providing real-life experience.

Orrstown Bank's new Lancaster County branch is located at 2098 Spring Valley Road in Rohrerstown and provides personal and business banking services.
