Orrstown Bank plans to move Camp Hill branch this summer

Shippensburg-based Orrstown Bank announced today that it plans to move its Camp Hill branch to 4075 Market St. this summer.

The new building has plenty of office space – a critical resource as the bank continues its expansion throughout the Capital Region.

“We’re excited to be expanding in the Camp Hill area, and we believe this location will allow our customers to reach our bank conveniently,” said Thomas R. Quinn, Jr., President and CEO of Orrstown Bank.

In addition to the branch, the building will have space for commercial and business lenders as well as mortgage lenders and wealth and investment advisors.

Orrstown says plans are not finalized, but they expect to close the location at 3045 Market St. in Camp Hill. All branch staff and customers will be transitioned to the new location, Quinn said.
