Orrstown Bank appoints Campbell to advisory group

Regional real estate broker Art Campbell has accepted an appointment to Orrstown Bank's advisory board for the Capital region. The group serves as consultants to guide the bank's sales activities and community involvement. They also provide insight on business prospects and changes throughout the area.

"I've watched Orrstown Bank become a leader in our region, and I'm proud to have the opportunity to be among those who provide advice and insight to help the bank continue its growth and success," said Campbell.

Campbell is the founder and president of Campbell Commercial Real Estate Inc. Established in 1984, the company handles commercial, industrial, retail and investment real estate, sales and leasing.

Campbell serves in several director positions in the Greater Harrisburg Association of REALTORS and has received numerous honors including the Professional Merit Award and Realtor of the Year. Campbell is also a certified instructor for the PA Real Estate Sales and Appraisal License Credits.
